

When Christmas cooking is near,
A yummy recipe I need to prepare.
Where could those recipes be?
I'll count through them 1, 2, 3...

Christmas games are fun for all,
Especially for kids so small.
On the PC they'll put in a CD,
I type in my name on the QWERTY...

Time to sit for a nice family meal,
Oops, somebody could make a mess.
Scootch them up close just like that,
And get them a little placemat.

After a long day of Christmas joy,
You really don't need another toy.
It must be time to sleep on a bed,
Maybe where your mommy rests her head.

Time to get ready for this special day,
Wash my body and hair I do say.
Before I shower and make myself clean,
I'll spend some time to make my teeth gleen...

All the Christmas stuff we get,
Needs a place to be I would bet.
Put it where clothes would sleep,
In a place with doors to keep.

Christmas music brings great cheer,
We look forward to this time of year.
Play carols and hymns to a nice beat,
As long as you have a good seat.

Neckties, shirts, pants, and socks,
All great gifts at which one gawks.
For the latter you can ball them up,
And store them in a space up top.

This chilly time of year it's hard to think,
Of sitting on a beach sipping a cool drink.
A warm hot chocolate is better to chug,
so go ahead and grab a mug.
