MY SUMMER BOOK LIST

How to use this Read & Go Activity Log:

Summer is coming and with it thousands of children with the free time to explore new worlds within the pages of books. Walking On Travels and Stuffed Suitcase have teamed up to help parents keep reading front and center, whether families are on road trips, flying to foreign lands or simply exploring their backyards.

Each week we will be highlighting fun activities you can do, book reviews and book lists to get you excited around a certain theme. What are these themes you ask? Well here you go!

May 26: Beaches
June 2: Cities
June 9: Nature
June 16: Cooking
June 23: Pets & Animals
June 30: Crafts

These themes were designed to help you connect as a family and build new experiences together. This activity log will help guide you and your kids through a six-week journey of the world and books around you.

You might have to get creative! If a theme activity seems unreachable, try to come up with a creative way to participate. No beach nearby? What about finding a sandbox at a park or local friend’s home?

We want to follow along with you and your kids in your adventures. Follow us on Instagram, Facebook, or Twitter and share photos of your summer read & go moments. Tag either @walkingontravels or @stuffedsuitcase and use the #ReadGo2014 hashtag.

Parents - don’t forget to check back on our sites each week to follow along and enter to win some great prizes we’re giving away.
